David O. McKay: Beloved Prophet Mary Jane Woodger

In 1951, David O. McKay was sustained as ninth president of The Church of Jesus Christ of Latter-day Saints. For nineteen years he led the Saints through a time of unprecedented growth and worldwide expansion. When he passed away at the age of 96, two of every three members of the Church had known no living prophet other than President David O. McKay. Ordained an Apostle when he was only thirty-two, David Oman McKay served as a General Authority for nearly sixty-four years—longer than anyone else to date. In this touching volume, President McKay is lovingly remembered as one of the most influential leaders the Church has known.
