“Why won’t you accept my invitation?” When the sinfully handsome billionaire Nick makes an advance on Beth, her heart flutters. They’d only just met a few days ago. Nick had hit Beth with his car and then pressured her to join him for Christmas. Ever since Beth lost her husband two years ago in an accident, she’s turned her back on people and any chance of romance. But just being next to this man, who smells of danger, she can’t help how her body reacts, even if her heart is saying no. She’d already made up her mind not to ever fall in love again...hadn’t she?
