The Tibet Gamble W. Kesler Jackson

Part history, part travelogue, part investigative journalism involving clandestine interviews across the Tibetan plateau, THE TIBET GAMBLE examines the risky bets being played on all sides of the Tibet issue—by multinational corporations, the Chinese Communist regime in Beijing, non-violent Tibet activists, militant young Tibetan dissidents, Hollywood celebrities, desperate refugees, and more. In addition to tackling some of the more familiar issues, W. Kesler Jackson answers many critical questions consistently avoided in discussion about Tibet today: What will happen when the Dalai Lama dies? Is there a militant side to the Tibetan freedom struggle? How much time do the Tibetan culture and language have left? Does the Western image of a peace-loving, violence-abhorring Tibetan truly mirror the reality for Tibetans today? And, most importantly, how can the Tibet problem be solved?
