L'infinito buio (I luoghi del delitto) (Italian Edition) Michele Branchi

Cosa può spingere la mente di un uomo a uccidere giovani donne con un rituale preciso e raffinato? Da dove viene il profumo dolce e intenso che sprigionano i corpi delle vittime? E cosa significano le rose con cui l'assassino oltraggia le ragazze ormai senza vita? Sono questi e molti altri gli interrogativi di fronte a cui si trova il commissario Capurro, alle prese con la sua prima, vera indagine. Aiutato dalle zie Colomba e Liliana, due anziane zitelle appassionate di libri gialli, il commissario si inoltrerà nel caso del serial killer che sta terrorizzando la città. Dalle indagini emergeranno insospettabili verità sul mondo dorato della Genova bene, ma non le tracce del killer, che appare e scompare, uscendo allo scoperto fino a contattare Capurro in persona per poi ritrarsi nuovamente nel buio. Così, indagando sugli indizi che il criminale sembra voler seminare di proposito, il commissario si addenterà sempre di più nell'indagine, fino a ritrovarsi, quasi senza accorgersene, dentro la mente dell'assassino...
