Whether working part time, seasonally or as a full time professional this ebook will assist instructors with their teaching career. No matter which system / nation you are qualified through the contents of this ebook will help you with your training and exams.

The book has been cleverly divided into color coded sections; green, blue, red, black (similar to the color coding for ski runs in Europe) with additional stuff in the yellow section at the end. The idea is that each section builds in complexity starting with the basics of delivering a good lesson (green) and progressing through to Teaching Styles in a Snowsports Environment (black).
