Fuego imperial (Novela Historica (roca)) (Spanish Edition) Robert Lyndon

Después del año 1066, en que se produjo la conquista normanda de Inglaterra, vastos imperios pelean por el dominio sobre sus enemigos. Desde los normandos en el norte hasta los bizantinos del Sur, las batallas se suceden a lo largo y ancho de Europa y en todas y cada una de sus fronteras. Sin embargo, al este, un imperio aún más poderoso empieza a dar señales de querer imponerse y ellos cuentan con un arma que puede ayudarles a dominar el mundo: la pólvora. El mercenario Vallon (un hombre que parece estar hecho de arena y polvo más que de carne y hueso) es enviado en secreto por el derrotado emperador bizantino a la búsqueda de la pólvora, esa «droga de fuego». Su casi imposible misión lo llevará a la china de la dinastía Song. Junto con su escuadra de soldados entrenados, también le acompañarán en el viaje el instruido doctor Hero, el explorador –que más bien parece un ermitaño- Wayland y un ambicioso y joven chico, Lucas. Todos tienen sus propias razones para haberse ofrecido a realizar este peligroso viaje y cada uno de ellos esconde secretos a los demás.

Su viaje les llevará a través de mares traicioneros, áridos desiertos y las inexploradas montañas y planicies que se encuentran más allá de la Ruta de la Seda. Pocos imaginan cuál será su recompensa.
