“Christianity is the true and right religion, because it is the one religion that comes to man from God, in whom it has its basis and foundation. It is the only religion revealed to man by God in His Word, and it is the only one bestowed upon man by God. Christianity is light from above. It is made known in the Bible, and it shows man that God has reconciled the sinful world to Himself through Jesus Christ, the Savior from sin for all mankind. . . . If we embrace the Christian religion, we are religious in the true and right manner, because we are right with God on God’s terms.” —Chapter One
