Todas las cosas en su sitio (Spanish Edition) GIULIA DELL'UOMO

Con poco más de veinte años, Sara descubre que tiene un tumor. La enfermedad, aunque desbarata su existencia, representa la ocasión para involucrarse y seguir programando, luchando, amando y queriendo vivir a fondo su vida. Hasta el punto de que incluso la relación con su médico, Roberto, va más allá de las paredes del hospital y se catapulta a la vida real, donde amor y miedo se mezclan en un torbellino de emociones intensas. Lo que marca el tiempo son los ingresos en el hospital, los exámenes infinitos, las lágrimas, las sonrisas, la conciencia de una enfermedad que no quiere irse y el renacimiento físico y emocional de una chica que está obligada, demasiado pronto, a convertirse en mujer.
