World Film Locations: Venice (Intellect Books - World Film Locations)

World Film Locations: Venice explores the rich history of films that have used the floating city as evocative backdrop and integral character. Few cities are as densely packed with cinematic locations, and filmmakers have been drawn to its grand spectacles, narrow and labyrinthine alleys, and picturesque waterways. Extensively illustrated with maps, film stills and present day location photos, this book provides both a colorful guide to, and an incisive examination of, Venice on film. It contains 46 insightful film entries describing carefully chosen scenes from each film, as well as 6 thematic essays, written by an impressive international selection of film critics, academics, and Venice experts. From one of the earliest mobile shots in film history (a voyage up the Grand Canal shot in 1896), through classic depictions of the city like Summertime (1955), Death in Venice (1971) and Don't Look Now (1973), to more recent big budget productions such as The Tourist (2010), World Film Locations: Venice spans the history of filmmaking in Venice.
