Re-released as a tribute to 'Our Cilla', STEP INSIDE is a cheerful assortment of tales from Cilla's family life and career, starting in the days when she was a stranger to the microphones and sheet music, and her backing group was any old band on the bill. She describes a string of 'herr-raising' adventures in and out of aircraft; how show business works in Australia; how to raise a champion at Cruft's; what happens when stars meet other stars on holiday; and why some 'Surprises' ended up on the cutting-room floor. Illustrated with family photographs, and cartoons from John Ireland, STEP INSIDE is a warm and funny book about private and public lives that doesn't take itself too seriously
