La mia prima vera Primavera (Italian Edition) Francesco Paolo Mazzei

La mia prima vera primavera, è la storia di una donna depressa e di un marito che fa di tutto pur di guarirla.

La storia di una famiglia che vive una vita serena e dignitosa, lontana dal mondo mediatico televisivo, sino a quando lei non riscopre autostima e determinazione. Quella considerazione soffocata per anni. La liberazione da una situazione di pacata tranquillità all'interno di una famiglia, allargata, nella quale lei è sempre stata considerata "la madre dei figli di nostro figlio". Come sempre l'hanno dipinta i genitori di lui.

Un giorno, infatti, una consegna errata cambia inesorabilmente il suo destino e quello della sua famiglia. Una telecamera invece di un frullatore recapitata per errore la porterà gradualmente dentro una dimensione che le ridarà considerazione. Soprattutto da parte degli altri. Lei comincerà a vedersi dentro una scatola, quella della televisione alla pari di tutte quelle facce sempre viste e sognate e ritenute irraggiungibili. Per la prima volta non si vergogna di vedersi. Comincia a piacersi e a piacere. Prima in famiglia, poi anche fuori dall'ambito familiare. La sua corsa liberatoria la porterà all'estremo opposto dal quale era partita. Fuori dagli schemi. Sino a scoprire la causa vera della sua depressione.
