Il giorno in cui facebook arrivó nel condominio ariosto (Italian Edition) Marisa Saccon

Un giorno Facebook arriva anche nel condominio Ariosto e tutti gli abitanti si creano un profilo nel famoso social network. Ognuno, a modo suo, entra cosí in quella dimensione del virtuale dove si intrecceranno anche in modo grottesco, alcuni destini: Marcello conoscerà meglio le donne del palazzo compresa la moglie; Paola cercherà il riflesso di una immagine perfetta che non riesce a trovare nel mondo reale: l'Ingegnere Florindo combatterà finalmente tutte le sue cause.

L'unico rumore reale a fare da sottofondo a tutto questo movimento virtuale, sarà l'eco dei passi, sulle scale, di Vad, il meccanico dell'ultimo piano, l'unico a non avere il computer. La sera gli piace fermarsi nei pianerottoli bui dove attardarsi per rubare lembi di intimità e ascoltare i rumori provenienti dagli altri appartamenti, mentre sono tutti impegnati a navigare nei loro mondi virtuali, a creare relazioni, a fare salotto, a fare gli intellettuali.

Qualcuno ha detto che chi non ha un profilo Facebook è come se fosse morto socialmente.

Che ne sarà allora di Vad?

Questo breve romanzo offre uno spunto di riflessione su quelle che sono le implicazioni del virtuale nel reale e su come si sono trasformate le relazioni umane con i social network.
