Todies and Juleps) became popular enough to be recorded in history. Most cocktails are made from the four mainstays of alcohol– vodka, gin, whiskey, and rum. Other cocktails may use more esoteric liquors, like absinthe or Jagermeister, but for the most part all cocktails include at least one of the four primary alcohols. For the non-alcoholic party lovers, mocktails are the perfect party drinks for all. During summers they also prove to be refreshing health drinks as well.
